Appearance Counts in Richland County

Are you a Richland resident with a green thumb or a knack for gardening? Then let us recognize you! The Richland County Appearance Commission is accepting applications for its Appearance Counts Contest. The Contest recognizes the beautification, landscaping, and revitalization efforts of county citizens as well as the work of community and faith based organizations. Categories include front yard beautification, edible gardens, as well as rain gardens and other sustainable efforts. The deadline to enter is Wednesday, February 15th. For more information, call 576-2065. Click here to download the application!
