- Possess integrity, be willing to articulate his/her views frankly, be able to work productively with others, and have the ability and willingness to commit the time and effort required;
- Represent the interest of their appointing body while endeavoring to achieve regional consensus;
- Fiduciary responsibility to vote for the best interests of the region and not those or their appointing body;
- Able to work cooperatively in a multi-jurisdictional setting;
- Responsible for informing their respective jurisdictions of key issues, facilitating communication between those entities and the COMET, and helping build consensus;
- Participate in the COMET Leadership Academy;
- Provide value and expertise on improving transportation and mobility within the region.
- A core knowledge of the transportation sector, and the concepts, principles and values of the COMET;
- Ability to act without a real or perceived conflict of interest that could reasonably be perceived to conflict with the individual’s responsibility to act in the best interests of the Board;
- Stature in the individual’s chosen business or profession, or community involvement;
- Willingness to ask probing questions and challenge management within the appropriate governance context;
• Ability to operate “as a team” at the Board level and “speak with one voice” once a full discussion has been undertaken and a decision has been made by the Board;
• Ability to review and examine budgets to ensure projected expenses and income are realistically comprehensive and assess the implications of financial and audit reports;
• Ability to bring a perspective of external business, social and regional issues to the deliberations of the Board;
• Ability to use tact, discretion and sound independent judgment;
• Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing;
• High ethical standards;
• Willingness to adhere to protocols and policies regarding staff and personnel operations and communications;
• A commitment to continuous learning to maintain a knowledge of potential changes and trends facing the future of the COMET and transportation industry, best practices and policies (via webinars, local, regional and national conferences);
• An understanding of governance and the fiduciary duties and responsibilities of both a Board of Directors as well as of individual members (in particular – a comfort level with the principles of the by-laws under which the Board operates); and
• Ability to provide leadership, strategic direction and oversight.

Board Member Mission and Commitment:
• Willingness to make a real contribution to the COMET and the communities it serves;
• Commitment to the COMET strategic objectives, vision, mission and values;
• Willingness to participate in COMET related activities including utilizing the transportation services provided by the COMET, such as occasionally riding the bus;
• Willingness to act in the best interests of the COMET and the communities it serves independently of any particular interest arising as a result of any previous, existing or future relationship with the COMET staff, Board of Directors, or the suppliers; and
• Willingness to stay informed, available, and engaged as well as to attend meetings and represent the Board or its interests in the public.
