In Favor: Branham, Terracio, and Barron

The vote in favor was unanimous.

Mr. Branham moved to appoint Ms. Karen Phillips, seconded by Ms. Terracio.

Ms. Terracio inquired if we have guidance from the Community Relations Council regarding what qualifications they are looking for in an applicant.

Ms. Barron responded they had not made a recommendation recently. Previously, they needed attorneys, but we may need to go back and ask them. Although Ms. Phillips has great passion, she believes other applicants have more experience and professional knowledge.
Mr. Branham withdrew his motion. He suggested speaking with Council and the Community Relations Council to determine their needs.

Ms. Barron moved to appoint Ms. Shayne Kinloch, seconded by Mr. Branham.

Ms. Terracio noted Ms. Kinloch spoke in generalized terms about the Community Relations Council. She did not feel strongly about her connection to the Council and its work.

Ms. Barron withdrew her motion.

Ms. Terracio moved to re-advertise the remaining vacancy and obtain information from the Community Relations Council regarding their present needs, seconded by Mr. Branham.

In Favor: Branham, Terracio, and Barron
