

Richland County Treasurer David Adams served as one of the three main speakers at the June 8, 2009 Save Our Jobs Rally at the State House.

“The stimulus debate is over—but nothing has been won—not until every South Carolinian has an opportunity for a quality, affordable education—a chance at a decent job—and a government that does what you give it your money to do.”