Richland County Receives National Budget Award 17 Years and Counting...

The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States (GFOA) is recognizing Richland County Government for achieving an effective and balanced budget. Richland County is the recent recipient of the 2011 GFOA Distinguished Budget Presentation Award. This is the 17th consecutive year the county has won this award.

The award reflects the county's pioneering efforts to create a strong financial plan, quality budget presentation and financial transparency.

GFOA considers award recipients an "excellent example for other governments in North America." Richland County is one of more than 1,200 entities have received this national award.
